Past Master/Past Grand Master Jewel Presentation

Photographer Chad Robinson, Grand Marshal

After a Worshipful Master completes his term in office, he is traditionally presented with a "Jewel" he can wear to indicate his status. (This practice dates back to the early to mid-1700s.) Upon the death of a Past Master, the jewel is often returned to the Lodge for use by another Past Master. Brother H. Edward Maull (center) presented the jewel his father wore as Grand Master in 1951 to the Most Worshipful Grand Master Marinucci (right), and the jewel he wore as Worshipful Master of Jefferson Lodge to Worshipful Master Ronald Ferraro 33° (left) during the November 1, visitation. As explained after the presentation, each owner of the Past Master's jewel has his name inscribed thereon. Thus, a Past Master is memorialized through the return of the jewel to the Lodge and its use by another Past Master.

Breakfast with the Guys

Photographer Ron Clark

The second monthly 'Breakfast with the Guys' was held at Ocean Grill on November 4, at 8:00 AM. A record number of 18 members and guests were present. This is a time for informal fellowship and also provides an opportunity for members to introduce non-mason friends to the fellowship of our fraternity. The next 'Breakfast with the Guys' will be December 2, at 8:00 AM at Lewes Diner.
